

Abominable Economics Anger God

Introduction

This message synthesizes previous writing with new material in response to the current global financial economic crisis. It warns of the prophesied destruction of the United States homeland. It exposes the injustice inherent in the Federal Reserve System and globalization. It calls the body of Christ to live within the global economic system without internalizing its values. Finally, it calls us to discard the unjust fiat currency based Federal Reserve System in exchange for a just currency backed 100% by a precious commodity that only God can create.

God's anger against abominable economic practices was shown when Jesus Christ forcefully threw corrupt money changers out of the temple in 30 A.D. Moneychangers or bankers standardized foreign and Galilean currencies into pure silver half shekel coins required to pay the Temple tax and purchase sacrificial animals. (<http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/spages/1048260.html>) The money changers were using their control of the shekel supply as a means to exact unjust premiums as fees for their sacred shekel exchange services. These opportunistic, capitalizing money changers were profaning God's house by turning into a financial marketplace-a profitable trading station. This greed aroused the righteous anger of Christ against them. Biblical history records no other time when Jesus used physical force against anyone during his earthly life. He was unjustly executed later that year. (John 2:14-16)

God has warned us that a great global superpower will reap violent judgment for the violent, fraudulent and deceitful means she's used to achieve temporal security, peace and luxurious prosperity. (Ephesians 5:3-7; Revelation 17-18; Isaiah 21:1-1-10; Isaiah 24; Zechariah 5:1-4; Jeremiah 5:23-31; Jeremiah 50-51; James 5:1-6)

The prophet John described this great, ruling power as a great whore. (Revelation 17:1) He describes this nation as fallen-dropped, descended, degraded, decreased, ruined!

He points out that her fornication or idolatry murderously sacrifices human lives in order to secure material luxuries for herself and her global trading partners. (Revelation 17:3, 17:18; 18:3-24)

I believe Revelation 17-18 is a picture of a fallen U.S. destroyed by God for her whorish sin through the hands international rulers who hate her and plan to unite themselves under the global leadership of the beast nation led by its mouth, Antichrist. (Revelation 17:16-18; Revelation 13; Daniel 7)

American Imperialism

Americans find it difficult to accept the real purpose of 70+ U.S. international military interventions that have occurred since 1945.

We'll utter euphemisms like "we're thankful for those willing to sacrifice their lives to preserve our way of life". The hard truth, however, concerning these wars usually elude us.

The hard truth about foreign U.S. military intervention has been concisely summarized by U.S. author and historian William Blum at http://www.thirdworldtraveler.com/Blum/US\_Interventions\_WBlumZ.html as follows:

The engine of American foreign policy has been fueled not by a devotion to any kind of morality, but rather by the necessity to serve other imperatives, which can be summarized as follows:

- * making the world safe for American corporations;
- * enhancing the financial statements of defense contractors at home who have contributed generously to members of congress;
- * preventing the rise of any society that might serve as a successful example of an alternative to the capitalist model;
- * extending political and economic hegemony over as wide an area as possible, as befits a "great power."

In other words, global architects use the U.S. military to promote globalization. American soldiers are used as cannon fodder for the "responsible men", the "special class", the elite bureaucracy who serve the purposes of the private power and wealth managed by Europe's royal aristocratic oligarchic Black Nobility families among whom are the Rothschild's and Windsor's.

<http://www.rothschild.info/home/>

<http://www.globalresearch.ca/index.php?context=va&aid=10855>

<http://www.royal.gov.uk/output/Page135.asp>.

Dear Father, please forgive, bless and protect the good intentioned members of the American military who sincerely don't understand the true nature of the work they're involved in!

Please refer to the link for more information concerning this hard truth.
(http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/uploads/US\_HARD\_TRUTHS.pdf)

What is Globalization?

Patrick M. Wood of the August Review defines globalization and offers this information concerning its origin and purposes on his website, www.augustreview.com.

Wood writes: "Globalization is the collective effect of purposeful and amoral manipulation that seeks to centralize economic, political, technological and societal forces in order to accrue maximum profit and political power to global banks, global corporations and the elitists who run them. (Note: I believe the manipulation is immoral, not amoral.)

"Free Trade" is the central mantra. Globalization is set against national Sovereignty, closed borders, trade tariffs and anything that would restrict its goals and methods used to achieve them.

Globalization promotes regional and global government, a one-world economic system of trade and a form of fascism where global corporations and their elite control the policies and directives of individual governments.

The original and primary perpetrators of modern-day globalization number only in the 100's, representative of which, but not exclusively, are members of The Trilateral Commission.

To understand the genesis of the Trilateral Commission, read the transcript of the 1979 radio show between Antony C. Sutton, Patrick M. Wood and George S. Franklin, Jr. -- Coordinator of the Trilateral Commission!

Where did Globalization come from?

The "New International Economic Order" was the coinage of the Trilateral Commission starting in 1973. This purpose was stated repeatedly in its papers, journals and conferences. (Note: The roots of Globalization can be traced back a century or more before 1973.)

New World Order

Click on the movie to hear G. H. W. Bush in his own words!

In 1991, President George H.W. Bush, a member of the Trilateral Commission, began to openly talk about the New World Order, which expanded the concept to include governance as well as economic unity. “

David Rothkopf, visiting scholar at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, has directed the Carnegie Economic Strategy Roundtable, served two years as managing director of Kissinger Associates and was deputy undersecretary for international trade policy in the Clinton Administration.

In his book, Superclass: The Global Elite and the World They Are Making, this elite insider reveals a global super cluster of links that you can examine at the following link verifying the reality of globalization and its major players.

http://us.macmillan.com/BookCustomPage.aspx?isbn=9780374272104&m\_type=4&m\_contentid=3829#cmscontent)

In basic terms, globalization is the spread of the global economy. The Gap, as defined by military advisors like Thomas P.M. Barnett, is regions of the world that are largely disconnected from the global economy.

Barnett says George W. Bush “has set a showdown between the forces of connectedness and disconnectedness in our world.”<sup>1</sup>[1] Disconnectedness is defined as opposition to the process of globalization; the worldwide integration and increasing flows of trade, capital, ideas, and people. <sup>2</sup>[2] Disconnectedness is the opposite of functioning within globalization. <sup>3</sup>[3] Connectivity is the opposite of disconnectedness. According to Barnett, “disconnectedness is the ultimate enemy” in the global war on terror, and once the United States has “named our enemies, we will invariably wage war, unleashing the death and destruction that come with it.”<sup>4</sup>[4]

Globalization in biblical prophecy

In biblical terms, globalization is the construction process required to establish the fourth kingdom of Daniel; the blasphemous beast kingdom of Revelation 13:1 complete with its global economic system and interoperable global ID mark.

---

<sup>1</sup>[1] Thomas P.M. Barnett, The Pentagon’s New Map, Penguin Group, USA, 2004, pg. 288.

<sup>2</sup>[2] Thomas P.M. Barnett, Blueprint For Action, Penguin Group, USA, 2005, pg. xvi.

<sup>3</sup>[3] Thomas P.M. Barnett, The Pentagon’s New Map, Penguin Group, USA, 2004, pg. 132.

<sup>4</sup>[4] Thomas P.M. Barnett, The Pentagon’s New Map, Penguin Group, USA, 2004, pg. 124.

This beast's interoperable global ID mark will be required for every individual participating in its global economy. (Daniel 7:7-28, Revelation 13)

This fourth kingdom is also called the little horn and it will be led by another beast called the false prophet otherwise known in New Testament scripture as the man of sin; that Wicked; antichrist. (Daniel 7:7, 8, 19-21; 2 Thessalonians 2:8-12; Revelation 16:13; Revelation 19:20; Revelation 20:10)

Erasing disconnectedness of individuals and states from the global economy, according to strategic military advisers such as Barnett, is the defining security task of our age.

Barnett bluntly states:

- “the global war on terror is all about connectivity” <sup>5</sup>[5]
- “the goals of winning the war on terrorism and expanding globalization are two sides of the same coin” <sup>6</sup>[6]
- The war on terror is “today's brutal means to a future worth creating: a Middle East that's reconnected to the world.” <sup>7</sup>[7]

What the rulers of this age are forgetting, however, is that God is just and plans to dump a double shot of his just reward down the throat of this great whore the apostle John was told to call “Babylon the Great”.

<sup>1</sup>And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. <sup>2</sup>And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. <sup>3</sup>For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. <sup>4</sup>And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. <sup>5</sup>For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. <sup>6</sup>Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. <sup>7</sup>How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and

---

<sup>5</sup>[5] Thomas P.M. Barnett, Blueprint For Action, Penguin Group, USA, 2005, pg. 85.

<sup>6</sup>[6] Thomas P.M. Barnett, Blueprint For Action, Penguin Group, USA, 2005, pg. 95.

<sup>7</sup>[7] Thomas P.M. Barnett, Blueprint For Action, Penguin Group, USA, 2005, pg. 73.

sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. <sup>8</sup>Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

<sup>9</sup>And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup>Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. <sup>11</sup>And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: <sup>12</sup>The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, <sup>13</sup>And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. <sup>14</sup>And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. <sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, <sup>16</sup>And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! <sup>17</sup>For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, <sup>18</sup>And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! <sup>19</sup>And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. <sup>20</sup>Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. <sup>21</sup>And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. <sup>22</sup>And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; <sup>23</sup>And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. <sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. (Revelation 18)

Fornication

John wrote that the kings of the earth had committed fornication with the great whore nation.

In scripture, fornication can be a literal reference to sexual immorality or a metaphorical reference to idolatry. Idolatry is the worship of the image of false gods, mammon or wealth. Colossians 3:5 tells us that covetousness is idolatry. Covetousness is the greedy desire to have more or accumulate financial wealth. Ephesians 5:3-7 teaches that covetousness arouses the wrath of God upon its practitioners.

The context of the judgment of the great whore described in Revelation 17-18 reveals that the fornication of Babylon the Great isn't primarily sexual immorality. Babylon's fornication refers to the powerfully corrupting influence her covetous, materialistic love of money and luxury exert over her international trading partners. (Revelation 17:1-2, 18:3-23 and see link)

Babylon the Greats' corrupt financial values magically spanned the globe deceiving all nations to idolize the luxurious lifestyle of her rich and famous magnates. (Revelation 18:23; also see links below)

<http://www.carnegieendowment.org/publications/index.cfm?fa=view&id=20002&prog=zgp&proj=zusr>

[http://us.macmillan.com/BookCustomPage.aspx?isbn=9780374272104&m\_ty pe=4&m\_contentid=4557](http://us.macmillan.com/BookCustomPage.aspx?isbn=9780374272104&m_ty pe=4&m_contentid=4557)

The murderous global warfare required to spread her materialistic values was even directed against true believers who weren't deceived by her magic and refused to bow in support of her corrupt public policies. (Revelation 17:5-6, 18:20-24)

When interpreted in the light of current U.S. culture, foreign policy and global military interventions aimed at forcing non-integrating nations to play by the rules of the U.S. led global economy; the application of the prophecy of Revelation 17-18 teaches the sudden destruction of the homeland of the United States of America. It teaches the urgent need of the church "come out of her"-to expose, rather than support, corrupt U.S. public policies and practices.

The prophesied conspiracy

Revelation 17:16-18 teaches that a group of 10 powers will conspire to destroy "Babylon the Great" in order to establish a New World Order led by the beast nation. Biblical study reveals this beast to be a nation led by a false prophet commonly known as Antichrist. These truths are proven from the following excerpt from a larger biblical study found at http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/uploads/911\_PDF\_June\_29\_2008.pdf.

The fact that the beast of Revelation 13:1 and 17:12-13 is an empire is underscored by the prophecies of Daniel describing the fourth kingdom. (Daniel 2:31-45, Daniel 7:7-28)

This kingdom will be led by 10 leaders or kings. Revelation 17:12-13 teaches that the 10 horns, driven by a resolute common purpose, will assume control of the beast kingdom.

The fact that the beast of Revelation 13:1 is a kingdom is shown in the common fate that it shares with the fourth beast kingdom of Daniel.

Daniel 7:9-11 teaches in the context of the final judgment to occur following the return of the Lord Jesus Christ, that “the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.”

Within the same context, Revelation 19:19-20 explains that John “saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.”

These verses show that the fourth and final kingdom of Daniel 7 and the beast of Revelation 19 share the common fate of a burning death.

Short lived “little horn” kingdom

The most commonly accepted belief among modern biblical prophecy teachers is that the beast out of the sea in Revelation 13:1 represents Antichrist. We have just seen, however, that both Daniel 7 and Revelation 13, 17 and 19 teach that the beast represents a kingdom controlled by 10 kings or political leaders. Thus, the beast of Revelation 13:1 can’t refer to Antichrist unless we make presumptively assume the verse refers to both the kingdom and its king.

Revelation 13:11 tells us that another, or a different beast springs up on the global political scene. That beast, like the beast of Revelation 13:1, is of neuter gender. Neuter gender indicates that these two beasts aren’t people. The beast of Revelation 13:11 is described as having two horns like a lamb and speech like a dragon.

The Old Testament describes this beast as the “little horn”. Daniel 7:7-8 tell us that “another little horn” came up among the ten horns of the beast kingdom.

The word little used in Daniel 7:7-8 refers to small in quantity or time. It's possible that Revelation 17:10 is a reference to this little horn kingdom since the 7th kingdom prophesied in that verse is said to "continue a short space" before the eighth and final earthly kingdom is established.

<sup>9</sup>And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. <sup>10</sup>And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. <sup>11</sup>And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. <sup>12</sup>And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. <sup>13</sup>These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. (Revelation 17:9-13)

"Continue a short space" means that this kingdom will remain in power a relatively short time. This little horn is also mentioned in Daniel 8:8-9 as originating out of one of the four notable divisions which spread out "toward the four winds of heaven" in lieu of Alexander the Great's Grecian Empire. This Grecian empire was a part of the eastern leg of the ancient Roman Empire which includes the modern nations of Turkey, Syria, Iraq, Jordan, Egypt, Lebanon, Israel, Iran, Kuwait, Cyprus, Turkmenistan, Azerbaijan, Armenia, and the countries of the Balkan Peninsula. Further detail on this topic can be found in Chapter 1 of the study at the link: <http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/uploads/Project666.pdf>.

Daniel 8:8-9 refutes the commonly accepted teaching that Antichrist must arise out of a Revived Western Roman Empire.

We aren't told that the two horns of Revelation 13:11 represent kings or political leaders like we were told that the ten kings of the beast of Revelation 13:1 and 17:12 represented kings. Thus, it's incorrect to presume that the two horns represent two kings. Since the rest of Revelation 13:11 contrasts the dragon-like speech of the beast kingdom with its two lamb-like horns, it follows that the two horns refer to behavioral characteristics and not kings. These behavioral characteristics could be called two faces.

Janus, the mythological Roman god, is a historical example of a beast with two horns or faces. Janus two faces represented, among other things, the door between peace and war.

Janus: Two face Roman god

(http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Janus\_\(mythology\)))

In the U.S. we hear of two faced politicians. Leaders that profess to uphold the U.S. Constitution, but belong to secret organizations with unconstitutional globalist agendas. With one face they profess to serve the interests of the people. With the other face they ultimately serve the interests of the international bankers and the elite powers-the puppeteers who pull their strings. Leaders that profess to worship a holy God, but, among many other atrocities, fund the murder of unborn children and war's collateral damage to non-combatative children and their families.

Antichrist: mouth of the “little horn” beast kingdom

In scripture, the dragon represents Satan. Satan's trademark is lying, deceiving, accusative hatred toward believers and denial that Jesus is the Christ. (John 8:44; I John 2:22; 1 John 4:20; Revelation 12:9-10)

The beast of Revelation 13:11 is an enigmatic combination. It's a two faced, hypocritical mixture of humility, gentleness and meekness characteristic of the Lamb of God with the lying, deceitful, accusative, domineering devil-speak characteristic of a dragon. Its power is fueled not only through lies, but also in persistent, persuasive and unrealistic myth.

The beast out of the earth is a nation that professes to be a light to the world and a great nation to be emulated. The truth of the matter is, however, the devilish, political warmongering of the two horned beast betrays its profession of compassionate goodness. This is consistent with Satan's tendency to disguise himself as an angel or messenger of light. (2 Corinthians 11:14)

Revelation 13:5 explains that the beast kingdom consisting of ten kings is given a mouth. Daniel 7:8-11 tell us that another little horn or kingdom springs up among the original ten kingdoms of the fourth and final beast kingdom.

Daniel's attention was arrested by the sound of the great, powerful and domineering words that the little horn was speaking.

Revelation 13 provides the following characteristics of the mouth of the little horn:

- Speaking great things and blasphemies (Revelation 13:5, 6)
- Power given unto him to continue 42 months (Revelation 13:5)
- Makes war with the saints and overcomes them (Revelation 13:7)
- Power was given him over all kindred's, tongues and nations. (Revelation 13:7)
- He is worshipped by the unsaved. (Revelation 13:8)
- Exercises all the power of the beast with ten horns on its behalf (Revelation 13:12)
- Caused the earth and its inhabitants to worship the beast kingdom (Revelation 13:12)
- Doeth great wonders making fire come down from heaven in plain sight (Revelation 13:13)
- Uses these miraculous wonders as a means to deceive the world (Revelation 13:14)
- Uses these wonders as a pretext to command the rest of the world to produce a likeness to the beast kingdom which had the public calamity or "wound by the sword" (Revelation 13:14)

This description of the mouth of the little horn is developed further in the description of Antichrist found in 2 Thessalonians 2:3-12. In depth studies of these verses can be found at the following links in this site:

- Chapter 4 at <http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/uploads/Project666.pdf>
- Chapter 3 at http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/uploads/Project\_911\_PDF\_feb\_5\_2008.pdf

These verses describes that Wicked, that man of sin, the son of perdition ascending to global dictatorship behind startling, fraudulent, deceitful, unjust and immoral Satanic activities deceiving those that choose to believe a lie because they thought evil was good. In other words, Antichrist makes his appearance in stealth while disguising his true intentions. This man isn't the same man he and his supporters claim he is. There is a sharp dichotomy between the order that this hypocritical, two-faced, two-horned Antichrist promises and the destructive chaos his policies create.

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." (Revelation 13:11)

Like a lamb, Antichrist humbly promises security, peace and prosperity. The truth is, however, he's lying like the devil. His deceitful policies are responsible for the opposite: unjust war and the murder of countless numbers of Christian saints and others, stealing of personal liberties and the destruction of national economies. (Daniel 8:25; John 10:10; Revelation 6:1-8; Revelation 13:4-8, 16-17)

Regarding the coming of Antichrist, 2 Thessalonians 2:9 states:

Even him, whose coming (Strong's #3952: arrival, advent, presence) is after (Strong's #2596: according to) the working of Satan with all power (Strong's #1411: great ability, dominion, and authority) and signs (Strong's #4592: signs signifying ties to a spiritual power; a prodigy, portent, i.e. an unusual occurrence transcending the common course of nature portending remarkable events soon to happen) and lying (Strong's #5579: falsehood) wonders (Strong's #5059: portent, omen, prodigy. A portent is an omen of ill; a prodigy indicating the approach of evil or calamity. A prodigy is a strange thing out of the ordinary process of nature and so extraordinary that it excites wonder or astonishment. Omens or signs and indicators can be drawn from prodigious events which point to a future event.)

2 Thessalonians 2:4 describes Antichrist as a haughty man with a high opinion of himself and contempt for others. His arrogance and dictatorial manner put him in opposition to and set him against what anyone else worships or calls God as he demonstrates himself as the supreme ruler and decider.

The fourth kingdom or beast

As previously stated, the fourth kingdom or fourth beast, the final global kingdom in existence when the Lord Jesus Christ returns, is foretold in the prophecy of Daniel.

These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. (Daniel 7:17-18)

This beast is described in Daniel 7 as follows:

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. (Daniel 7:7)

Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass;

which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; (Daniel 7:19)

Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. (Daniel 7:23)

Daniel 7:23 clearly teaches that the fourth beast is a kingdom.

Amplified definitions of the adjectives used in the above verses to describe the beast kingdom are as follows:

- Exceeding dreadful: 3493-preeminently 1763- formidable, generates fear, makes people afraid
- Terrible: 574- mighty, well loined, great in size, frightful, adapted to excite terror
- Strong exceedingly: 8624-mighty 3493-pre eminent, surpassing, extraordinary, extreme.
- Great iron teeth: huge, domineering teeth of iron. Iron-a metal, the hardest, most common and most useful of all the metals;... It is so hard and elastic as to be capable of destroying the aggregation of any other metal. Next to tin, it is the lightest of all metallic substances, and next to gold, the most tenacious.
- Nails of brass: 5174-brass- An alloy of copper and zinc, of a yellow color; usually containing about one third of its weight of zinc, but the proportions are variable. Impudence; a brazen face, shamelessness; want of modesty; effrontery; assurance accompanied with a disregard of the opinions of others. Nails: 2953-hoofs, claws-the claw or talon of a fowl or other animal. A small pointed piece of metal, usually with a head, to be driven into a board or other piece of timber, and serving to fasten it to other timber.
- Shall devour the whole earth: 399-accused, devour, slander. To eat up; to eat with greediness; to eat ravenously, as a beast of prey, or as a hungry man.
- Shall tread it down: 1759-trample,
- Broke in pieces: 1855- crumble. To fall into small pieces; to break or part into small fragments.
- Break it in pieces: 1855-crush. To press and bruise between two hard bodies; to squeeze, so as to force a thing out of its natural shape; to bruise by pressure.
- Stamped the residue with the feet of it: 7512-stamped- impressed with a mark or figure; coined; imprinted; deeply fixed. 7606-rest, residue- That which remains after a part is taken, separated, removed or designated.
- Diverse from all the beasts that were before it: diverse 8133-different, changed, altered, differing

In Daniel 2:40-44, the beast kingdom is described in the following way:

And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

Amplified definitions of the adjectives used in the above verses to describe the beast kingdom are as follows:

- Strong as iron: Iron-a metal, the hardest, most common and most useful of all the metals;... It is so hard and elastic as to be capable of destroying the aggregation of any other metal. Next to tin, it is the lightest of all metallic substances, and next to gold, the most tenacious.
- break in pieces and bruise: 1855 break in pieces-shatter, crush, crumble. 7490 bruise-crush, break, shatter
- clay: 2635-The name of certain substances which are mixtures of silex and alumin, sometimes with lime, magnesia, alkali and metallic oxyds. A species of earths which are firmly coherent, weighty, compact, and hard when dry, but stiff, viscid and ductile when moist, and smooth to the touch; not readily diffusible in water, and when mixed, not readily subsiding in it. They contract by heat. Clays absorb water greedily, and become soft, but are so tenacious as to be molded into any shape, and hence they are the materials of bricks and various vessels, domestic and chemical.
- Divided: 6386-divided, distributed, parted, split, discordant, disunited
- miry: 2917-Abounding with deep mud; full of mire; as a miry road; a miry lane. Mire: Deep mud; earth so wet and soft as to yield to the feet and to wheels.

- mingle themselves: 6155-mix, commingle, join together
- cleave: 1693-stick to, cling, adhere to, hold to
- mixed: 6151-mix, commingle, join together
- part: 4481-a portion, piece or fragment separated from a whole thing; as, to divide an orange into five parts.
- partly strong: In 4481, 7118, 8624-part; in some measure or degree; not wholly strong- having physical active power, or great physical power; having the power of exerting great bodily force; vigorous.
- partly broken: 4481, 8406-part; in some measure or degree; not wholly fragile or brittle

The following modern paraphrased description of the beast kingdom is the result of synthesizing the amplified meanings of the adjectives used to describe the kingdom in Daniel 2:40-44 and Daniel 7:7, Daniel 7:19 and Daniel 7:23.

And the fourth kingdom shall be very powerful militarily. Strong as iron and able to smash the existing infrastructure of any nation to pieces, this formidable, preeminent global military power excites fear in those potentially opposing its will. (Daniel 2:40; Daniel 7:7)

Characterized by a brazen disregard of others and motivated by a ravenous greed for their resources, the beast will slander and accuse differing non-integrated states in order to justify its clawing, preemptive attacks upon them. (Daniel 7:19)

In its military campaigns this beast shocks and awes its prey with the world's most powerful, state of the art weaponry. After smashing an opponent with a formidable display of world class military strength, the beast then forces a differing, non-integrating state out of its existing socio-economic mold. It accomplishes this by using a divide and conquer strategy designed to fragment the nation into warring factions; trample the existing political structure, and ultimately leave its beastly image stamped or imprinted upon the face of the land of the newly occupied state. (Daniel 2:40; Daniel 2:44; Daniel 7:7; Daniel 7:19; Revelation 13: 14-18)

In spite of this iron clad military hard power, the fourth kingdom remains a divided kingdom. This disunity exists between a mixture of its stronger and weaker client states distributed around the globe. The unity of its states is marked by the integration of each state with the beast into the global economic system. The client states are held together by the support of the beasts policing System Administrator forces and its soft power propaganda programs. (Daniel 2:41-43; Revelation 13:11-18)

It is clear from this description of the fourth kingdom that the two iron legs which carried the fourth beast beyond its own borders in order to “devour the whole earth” and stamp its image upon states different from itself parallels the hard power foreign military strategy of the U.S. leviathan.

In my biblically based opinion, Antichrist will be the two faced President of the U.S. when the U.S. is destroyed. Following this fatal wound to the U.S. homeland, he will be given command of global government; including U.S. led Multi-National NATO forces. For a look at NATO and its real purposes I refer you to <http://globalresearch.ca/index.php?context=va&aid=11989>.

God’s judgment: 10 ruling powers hate the great whore

European G7 financial ministers believe that the U.S. is to be blamed for the global financial crisis out of which she will fall from her superpower status in the world financial system.

(<http://www.reuters.com/article/newsOne/idUSTRE48O2L020080925>)

Could the realization of these leaders coupled with the growing understanding of the treacherous nature of current U.S. foreign policy eventually lead the 10 ruling powers of Revelation 17:16-17 to hate the U.S. enough to conspire together to destroy her?

The current U.S. financial crisis appears to be one step in God’s progressive judgment. This judgment eventually culminates in total destruction by fire. (Revelation 17-18) This fiery destruction will come upon the U.S. through enemy benefactors. (Revelation 17:16-18) Its God’s angry response to her apostasy, covetous idolatry and its associated murderous wars. (Ephesians 5:1-6; Revelation 17:6-18:8)

This present financial crisis is rooted in the love of money. The love of money is the root of all evil. (1Timothy 6:10)

Scripture reveals that God’s judgment can occur progressively upon idolaters. (Exodus 7:14-11:10; Leviticus 26; Revelation 6-11, 15-16)

We have seen how the United States has played the great whore militarily. How has the United States prostituted herself financially?

The Fed

Consider the following summary of how the Federal Reserve, a privately Rothschild bank owned company, usurped financial control over the United States.

The Bank of England created the investment firm of Morgan-Grenfell. It was headed by American expatriate Junius P. Morgan. His son, J.P. Morgan, turned it into an American dynasty. Brown Bros., now Brown Brothers-Harriman, was created by the Rothschild European interest in 1835. The Rothschild European banks financed the birth of other American dynasties like the Rockefeller family, and "Americanized" European banking houses like Kuhn, Loeb Co., J.M. Schroeder, Jacob Schiff, etc.

In 1907, Jacob Schiff, the Rothschild-owned boss of Kuhn, Loeb and Co., in a speech to the New York Chamber of Commerce, warned that "unless we have a Central Bank with adequate control of credit resources, this country is going to undergo the most severe and far reaching money panic in its history."

Shortly after, the U.S. plunged into a crisis. The "crisis" had two purposes: make money for the Rothschild bankers and impress on the American people the "great need" for a central bank. In 1910, German immigrant Paul Warburg, working with Senator Aldrich, the maternal grandfather of the Rockefeller family, began writing the Federal Reserve Act. Warburg told the Banking and Currency Committee:

"In the Panic of 1907, the first suggestion I made was, "let us have a national clearing house" [Central Bank]. The Aldrich Plan [for a Central Bank] contains many things that are simply fundamental rules of banking. Your aim must be the same...."

At a hearing of the House Committee on Banking and Currency in 1913, Warburg revealed that he was a member of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Co.

The Federal Reserve Act of 1913

The Federal Reserve Act became law in 1913. It placed the Constitutional Power of Congress to regulate the U.S. economy into the hands of private banks. Warburg became the "Fed's" first chairman. A dollar was no longer a unit of measurement. Instead, it became the thing it was supposed to measure.

The Federal Reserve System is a private corporate banking system belonging to its stock holders; the federally chartered private banks. All current major fed stock holders trace their roots to Europe's banking families.

Congressman Charles Lindbergh stated shortly after the "Federal" Reserve Act was passed by a depleted Congress on December 23, 1913:

"The Act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President signs this Bill, the invisible government of the monetary power will be legalized...The greatest crime of the ages is perpetrated by this banking and currency bill."

<http://www.iamthewitness.com/books/Andrew.Carrington.Hitchcock/Synagogue.of.Satan/1878-1919.htm>

DECEMBER 24, 1913-SIXTEEN PAGES - PRICE TWO CENTS

PRESIDENT'S SIGNATURE - ENACTS CURRENCY LAW

Wilson Declares It the First of Series of Constructive Acts to Aid Business.

Makes Speech to Group of Democratic Leaders.

Conference Report Adopted in Senate by Vote of 43 to 26.

Banks All Over the Country Hasten to Enter Federal Reserve System.

Gov-Elect Walsh Calls Passage of Bill
A Fine Christmas Present.

WILSON SEES DAWN OF NEW ERA IN BUSINESS

HOME VIEWS OF FOUR PENS USED
CURRENCY ACT BY PRESIDENT

Aims to Make Prosperity Free to Have Unimpeded Momentum.

President Wilson signed the Federal Reserve Act. A few years later he wrote in The New Freedom:

"A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is privately concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men ... [W]e have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated, governments in the civilized world—no longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and the duress of small groups of dominant men.”

Woodrow Wilson also wrote in the first chapter of the same work:

“Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the United States, in the field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.

They know that America is not a place of which it can be said, as it used to be, that a man may choose his own calling and pursue it just as far as his abilities enable him to pursue it; because to-day, if he enters certain fields, there are organizations which will use means against him that will prevent his building up a business which they do not want to have built up; organizations that will see to it that the ground is cut from under him and the markets shut against him. For if he begins to sell to certain retail dealers, to any retail dealers, the monopoly will refuse to sell to those dealers, and those dealers, afraid, will not buy the new man's wares.

And this is the country which has lifted to the admiration of the world its ideals of absolutely free opportunity, where no man is supposed to be under any limitation except the limitations of his character and of his mind; where there is supposed to be no distinction of class, no distinction of blood, no distinction of social status, but where men win or lose on their merits.

I lay it very close to my own conscience as a public man whether we can any longer stand at our doors and welcome all newcomers upon those terms. American industry is not free, as once it was free; American enterprise is not free; the man with only a little capital is finding it harder to get into the field, more and more impossible to compete with the big fellow. Why? Because the laws of this country do not prevent the strong from crushing the weak. That is the reason, and because the strong have crushed the weak the strong dominate the industry and the economic life of this country.”

“However it has come about, it is more important still that the control of credit also has become dangerously centralized. It is the mere truth to say that the financial resources of the country are not at the command of those who do not submit to the direction and domination of small groups of capitalists who wish to keep the economic development of the country under their own eye and guidance. The great monopoly in this country is the monopoly of big credits. So long as that exists, our old variety and freedom and individual energy of development are out of the question. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is privately concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men who, even if their action be honest and intended for the public interest, are necessarily concentrated upon the great undertakings in which their own money is involved and who necessarily, by very reason of their own limitations, chill and check and destroy genuine economic freedom. This is the greatest question of all, and to this statesmen must address themselves with an earnest determination to serve the long future and the true liberties of men.”

(Woodrow Wilson's The New Freedom: A Call for the Emancipation of the Generous Energies of a People (New York and Garden City: Doubleday, Page & Company, 1913). (<http://www.gutenberg.org/files/14811/14811-h/14811-h.htm>)

How does the Federal Reserve banking system control the United States?

The Federal Reserve System (The Fed), which serves as the nation's central bank, consists of a seven member Board of Governors headquartered in Washington, D.C.

The Fed consists of 12 Reserve Banks. These banks are located in 12 major U.S. cities. In addition to monetary policy responsibilities, the 7 member Federal Reserve Board regulates and supervises Federal Reserve System bank members, bank holding companies, international banking facilities in the United States, Edge Act and agreement corporations, foreign activities of member banks, and the U.S. activities of foreign-owned banks. (<http://www.federalreserve.gov/fraddress.htm>)

The Fed creates “debt paper”. These Federal Reserve Notes are loaned to the U.S. government with interest due. This interest income flows to the foreign bankers. Since the borrower is servant to the lender, we know that the U.S. government serves the Rothschild bank owned Federal Reserve Bank. (Proverbs 22:7)

The Federal Reserve’s chief task is to influence the flow of credit by affecting its general availability and cost to borrowers. Therefore the flow of money in a country depends mainly on the ability of banks to meet the credit and monetary requirements of industry, trade, agriculture, and all the other segments of economic life. The Federal Reserve has the power to influence the country’s credit situation and, since bank loans and investments are the main assets that serve as backing for deposits, its money supply. Federal Reserve influence is exerted primarily through the credit market. (The Federal Reserve System Purposes and Function, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 1954. Pages 7-11).

As early as June 2005, Former Fed Chairman Paul Volcker said "he doesn't see how the U.S. can keep borrowing and consuming while letting foreign countries do all the producing. It's a recipe for American economic disaster - - a crisis is likely." (<http://mwhodges.home.att.net/reserves.htm>)

With about 5% of the world's population, the U.S. consumes about one fourth of the world's imports. About one third of the goods needed in the U.S. are imported. Over 20% of the U.S. economy depends upon foreign trade. As the U.S. purchases more from foreign nations than they do from the U.S. and as foreign investment income from U.S. investments increases faster than U.S. income from U.S. foreign investments, the U.S. owes the foreign nations the difference. This difference is called external debt. Total U.S. external debt was reported as $12.25 trillion as of 6/30/2007.

(<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/geos/us.html#Econ>)

2008 Republican Presidential Candidate echoed Paul Volcker's sentiments concerning a coming economic crisis on his on his campaign website, Ron Paul 2008 writing:

"Real conservatives have always supported low taxes and low spending. But today, too many politicians and lobbyists are spending America into ruin. We are nine trillion dollars in debt as a nation... If we don't cut spending now, higher taxes and economic disaster will be in their future – and yours."

In addition, the Federal Reserve, our central bank, fosters runaway debt by increasing the money supply – making each dollar in your pocket worth less."

Dr. Ron Paul has since written on this subject in response to the current crisis as follows:

As the printing presses for the bailouts run at full speed, those in power are no longer even pretending that the new giveaways will fix our problems. Now that we are used to rewarding failure with taxpayer-funded bailouts, we are being told that this is "just a start," more funds will inevitably be needed for more industries, and that things would be much worse had we done nothing.

The updated total bailout commitments add up to over $8 trillion now. This translates into a monetary base increase of 75 percent over the last two months. This money does not come from some rainy day fund tucked away in the budget somewhere – it is created from thin air, and devalues every dollar in circulation. Dumping money on an economy, as they have been doing, is not the same as dumping wealth. In fact, it has quite the opposite effect.

One key attribute that gives money value is scarcity. If something that is used as money becomes too plentiful, it loses value. That is how inflation and hyperinflation happens. Giving a central bank the power to create fiat money out of thin air creates the tremendous risk of eventual hyperinflation. Most of the founding fathers did not want a central bank. Having just experienced the hyperinflation of the Continental dollar, they understood the power and the temptations inherent in that type of system. It gives one entity far too much power to control and destabilize the economy.

Our central bankers have had a tremendous amount of hubris over the years, believing that they could actually manage a paper money system in such a way as to replicate the behavior and benefits of a gold standard. In fact, back in 2004 then Fed Chairman Alan Greenspan told me as much. People talk about toxic assets, but the real toxicity in our economy comes from the neo-alchemy practiced by the Federal Reserve System. Just as alchemists of the past frequently poisoned themselves with the lead or mercury they were trying to turn to gold, today's bankers are poisoning the economy with accelerated fiat money creation.

Throughout the ages, gold has stood the test of time as a consistently reliable medium of exchange, and has frequently been referred to as "God's money," as only God can make more of it. Seeking superhuman power over money in the way alchemists did in ancient times caused society to shun them as charlatans. In much the same way, free people today should be sending the message that this power and control over our money is no longer acceptable.

The irony is that even had the ancient practice of alchemy suddenly, magically made abundant, alchemists still would have failed to create real wealth. Creating gold from lead would have cheapened its status to that of rhinestones or cubic zirconia. It is unnatural and dangerous for paper to be considered as precious as a precious metal. Our fiat currency system is crumbling and coming to an end, as all fiat currencies eventually do.

*Congress should reject the central bank as a failure for its manipulations of money that have brought our economy to its knees. I am hoping that in the 111th Congress my legislation to abolish the Federal Reserve System gains traction so that the central bank can no longer destroy our money.
(<http://www.lewrockwell.com/paul/paul497.html>)*

To summarize the iniquities inherent in the Federal Reserve fiat money system as simply as I can:

- The current global financial meltdown affecting the U.S. economy is the result of an unjust currency circulating within a fraudulent global economic system controlled by Rothschild owned European banks.
- A currency represents a circulated medium of exchange or means of trading.

- In scripture the word ephah is used to describe a currency. God commands that a currency and its governor(s) be just because he is just. (Leviticus 19:36; Deuteronomy 25:15; Deuteronomy 32:4; 2 Samuel 23:3; Ezekiel 18:9, 45:10; Proverbs 11:1, 16:11)
- Scarcity gives currency its value.
- Only a currency representing a precious commodity created by God such as gold or silver can serve as a just currency.
- If man can create currency at will by his command (fiat currency) that isn't backed by a precious commodity that God regulates, man can manipulate its value.
- A currency backed by a God supplied commodity that man must work hard to possess has real value. It's a just currency.
- Fiat currency lacks fair market value. Its value depends on how much of the currency is printed. If too much is printed, the currency loses value.
- Our fiat currency, Federal Reserve Notes or dollars, are printed by the Federal Reserve. These dollars are loaned to the U.S. government with interest charged on the loan.
- The Fed can increase the profits of its owners; the Rothschild owned European banks, by printing more money and loaning it with interest due to the U.S. This is a profitable deal as long as the U.S. can continue to make its loan payments.
- The Fed and its owners can destroy the purchasing value of the fiat currency by printing so much that the currency loses its value.
- The Fed and its owners can bankrupt the U.S. by printing so much that the U.S. is unable to make its currency loan payment.

The church and just economics

The scriptures equate justice and righteousness with just and honest economics. Economic injustice, deceit and fraud are wickedness and are an abomination to a holy God. (Deuteronomy 25:13-16; Proverbs 20:10; Micah 6:11)

501c3ism's financial fraud and compliance with wickedness

American 501c3ism has supported financial injustice by helping keep the conscience of the nation, the collective body of Christ, basically silent while the U.S. government sold the nation out to the wickedness of Federal Reserve Central Banking and its fiat currency-a last day's unjust "ephah". (Amos 8; Zechariah 5; Micah 6)

501c3ism is that huge schism encompassing all branches of the professing Christian church within the United States. In 501c3ism, church leadership is forbidden by its agreement with the Internal Revenue Service to contradict U.S. public policy.

The 501c3 church has placed herself under the headship of the United States government incorporating herself as a tax exempt religious organization. In exchange for surrendering the right and responsibility before God to speak to the morality of U.S. public policy, the church is promised tax benefits.

Any 501c3 church actively receiving 501c3 tax benefits while teaching things contrary to U.S. public policy, actively promoting specific candidates for political office or promoting legislation, is practicing fraud. Leaders knowingly practicing fraudulent wickedness in the financial realm are considered an abomination to God in spite of how “Christian” or good they may profess to be. (Proverbs 16:11-12)

The antichristian capitalistic philosophy of Adam Smith

The voice of the 501c3 church needs to be heard loudly at this time of crisis concerning Federal Reserve banking. She needs to expose the injustice of the Federal Reserve System and speak the truth that the underlying philosophy of Capitalism isn't Christian.

The writings of Adam Smith, the father of the financial philosophy of Capitalism, reveal that his economic philosophy doesn't exactly align with the mind of Christ.

It may come as a shock to professing Christian Capitalists that Jesus and his apostles weren't capitalists. The Lord Jesus Christ was a financially poor, yet holy man. By today's conservative evangelical standards, Jesus Christ might be tagged as indigent, an imbalanced ex-carpenter or a homeless religious fanatic. Not only was Jesus voluntarily poor, but so were the holy apostles following his lifestyle. (Matthew 8:18-20)

Was the Apostle Paul a capitalist? No, Paul expressed the equal concern people should have for others in everything they do this way:

“Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.” (Philippians 2:3-4)

He taught that God desires financial equality among believers. He penned scripture teaching that Christians with insufficient income are to be supplied by the extra income of other members of the body of Christ. (2 Corinthians 8:13-15; Acts 2:44-45; Acts 4:32-35)

Law of the Year of Jubilee

As further proof that the Lord isn't a capitalist, consider that he established the Law of the Year of Jubilee as recorded in the Book of Leviticus chapters 25-27.

According to this law, every 50th year the Israelites were to return all real property to its original owner. Slaves who had sold themselves to survive were to be set free. One of Gods intents in establishing the Jubilee Year was to prevent human rights abuses resulting from the oppression of the poor by the rich. Such abuses are a natural by-product of unbiblical human economic philosophies such as capitalism, communism, and fascism or national socialism/Nazism. These human philosophies fail to provide a moral balancing mechanism designed to compensate for the natural greed of the human heart.

God desires we invest in the needs of the poor; not covet the wealth of the rich. He wants us to work with our own hands to supply our needs; not supply our greed by investing in the enterprises of the wealthy because we covet a share of their profit. He wants us to receive our future returns from him tomorrow in his kingdom rather than receive them today from the corrupt American world of greed known as Wall Street. (Acts 20:33 -35; Luke 14:12 -14; James 4:13-5:8)

Speculative investing is gambling. The scriptures and unbiased biblical based logic support the belief of 19th century lawyer/evangelist Charles Finney that speculation is selfish gambling.

Speculation is not a lawful employment. To embark in uncertain speculations involves in it the principle of gambling, and is eminently the spirit of gambling. It is a game of chance, where one of the parties must gain and the other lose, and where selfishness stalks a broad naked to grasp every man's wealth without blushing. The Oberlin Evangelist. November 6, 1839. Professor Finney's Lectures. (19th century American Revivalist Charles Finney) LECTURE XX. HOW TO PREVENT OUR EMPLOYMENTS FROM INJURING OUR SOULS. (source: www.gospeltruth.net)

Interestingly, Adam Smith points out in “An Inquiry into the Nature and Causes of the Wealth of Nations” that during the reign of Edward VI religious zeal prohibited all interest.

Deuteronomy 23:20 teaches that zero interest was also the Old Testament standard for Israelites lending to Israelites. Psalm 15:5 and Proverbs 28:20 speak unfavorably of those that accumulate wealth through interest income. Muslims still believe today, in agreement with the Old Testament standard, that their god forbids usury or interest paid for the use of money. (<http://elcampeador.wordpress.com/2008/10/24/prominent-egyptian-cleric-zaghloul-al-naggar-global-economic-crisis-is-war-waged-by-allah-economy-should-be-based-on-healthy-islamic-principles-us-will-be-totally-annihilated/>)

Jesus Christ is accused of being a capitalist by those that fail to understand that his parables of the talents in Matthew 25:14-30 and the pounds found in Luke 19:11-27 were stories using earthly illustrations to teach spiritual truth. These stories weren't intended to teach financial capitalism. Jesus was simply using the practices of the money changers of his day to illustrate spiritual truth.

Based upon the proper interpretation of scripture we can be confident that Capitalism isn't "Christian". Simply because there are many professing Christians in the U.S. and we've historically been a capitalist nation doesn't mean that Capitalism is Christian.

Because this is true, the Christian is faced with the challenge of living within a capitalist world system without letting capitalism live within them. The Christian faces this daily financial decision: will I not only be in the system, but also be of the system-will I serve Satan, the prince of this world and the god mammon-or will I follow the Lord Jesus Christ and be in the system, but suffer within the system because I'm not of the system? (John 17:13-20)

The Capitalist can't serve both God and money. He must serve money because capitalism makes him a debtor to maximize business profit. He's bound to business owners and investors to do "whatever it takes" to maximize profit on their behalf.

Adam Smith's philosophy is used to justify capitalism as a Christian philosophy by some professing Christians today in spite of biblical warnings such as Colossians 2:8 and 1 Timothy 6:3-10 against worldly philosophies of this nature.

The following quotes from Adam Smith's 1776 work, "An Inquiry into the Nature and Causes of the Wealth of Nations" reveal his teachings on wealth and money to be devil speak, not Christ-like. Compare the teachings of the Bible on wealth and money found in James 1:9-11; James 2:1-7; James 4:1-8; James 5:1-3 with Adam Smith. The pure heart must conclude that Smith's philosophy is antichristian.

According to Adam Smith:

Every man is rich or poor according to the degree in which he can afford to enjoy the necessaries, conveniences, and amusements of human life. Wealth, as Mr. Hobbes says, is power. But the person who either acquires, or succeeds to a great fortune, does not necessarily acquire or succeed to any political power, either civil or military. His fortune may, perhaps, afford him the means of acquiring both, but the mere possession of that fortune does not necessarily convey to him either. The power which that possession immediately and directly conveys to him, is the power of purchasing; a certain command over all the labor, or over all the produce of labor, which is then in the market. His fortune is greater or less, precisely in proportion to the extent of this power; or to the quantity either of other men's labor, or, what is the same thing, of the produce of other men's labor, which it enables him to purchase or command. The exchangeable value of everything must always be precisely equal to the extent of this power which it conveys to its owner. It deserves to be remarked, perhaps, that it is in the progressive state, while the society is advancing to the further acquisition, rather than when it has acquired its full complement of riches, that the condition of the laboring poor, of the great body of the people, seems to be the happiest and the most comfortable. It is hard in the stationary, and miserable in the declining state. The progressive state is in reality the cheerful and the hearty state to all the different orders of the society. The stationary is dull; the declining, melancholy. "A great trader purchases his goods always where they are cheapest and best, without regard to any little interest of this kind. By such maxims as these, however, nations have been taught that their interest consisted in beggaring all their neighbors. Each nation has been made to look with an invidious eye upon the prosperity of all the nations with which it trades, and to consider their gain as its own loss. Commerce, which ought naturally to be, among nations, as among individuals, a bond of union and friendship, has become the most fertile source of discord and animosity. The capricious ambition of kings and ministers has not, during the present and the preceding century, been more fatal to the repose of Europe than the impertinent jealousy of merchants and manufacturers. The violence and injustice of the rulers of mankind is an ancient evil, for which, I am afraid, the nature of human affairs can scarce admit of a remedy". (CHAPTER II AN INQUIRY INTO THE NATURE AND CAUSES OF THE WEALTH OF NATIONS 1776 BOOK FOUR OF SYSTEMS OF POLITICAL ECONOMY by Adam Smith)

Adam Smith exalts the values of greed and covetousness. This is in spite of the fact that he recognizing the inherent evils and dangers of capitalism.

The scriptures condemn covetousness. Covetousness is the opposite of having a quiet mind that's thankful, content and satisfied with one's present financial state.

1 Timothy 6:6-8 says:

But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

Food is nourishment. Raiment is clothing. To be content is to be satisfied and suffice with the food and clothing God had provided rather than greedily longing for more. American history tells us that early American settlers, many of them professing Christians, lived off the daily produce of their land with gratitude to God for providing their daily bread.

Conclusion

One of the purposes of this message was to warn of the prophesied destruction of the United States homeland. It was also intended to expose the injustice inherent in the Federal Reserve System and call the body of Christ to live within the system without internalizing its values. Finally, it was a call to discard an unjust fiat currency based Federal Reserve System in exchange for a just currency backed 100% by a precious commodity that only God can create.

The fraudulent corporate capitalism that exists today is far different from Adam Smith's theoretical capitalism. Adam Smith's capitalism isn't in complete agreement with biblical principles. It didn't, however, possess the corruption of 21st century capitalism.

Texas Congressman Ron Paul points this fact out in this excerpt taken from a 7/9/2002 article entitled "Has Capitalism Failed?".

"...A system of capitalism presumes sound money, not fiat money manipulated by a central bank. Capitalism cherishes voluntary contracts and interest rates that are determined by savings, not credit creation by a central bank. It's not capitalism when the system is plagued within comprehensible rules regarding mergers, acquisitions, and stock sales, along with wage controls, price controls, protectionism, corporate subsidies, international management of trade, complex and punishing corporate taxes, privileged government contracts to the military industrial complex, and a foreign policy controlled by corporate interests and overseas investments. Add to this centralized federal mismanagement of farming, education, medicine, insurance, banking and welfare. This is not capitalism!"

<http://www.house.gov/paul/congrec/congrec2002/cr070902.htm>

Today's capitalism is rooted in fraud because the U.S. dollar is no longer a fair and honest global medium of exchange. The paper dollar doesn't represent anything of tangible value such as gold. It's essentially nothing more than counterfeit paper issued by the Federal Reserve to finance the American military force required to integrate the nations into the global economic system. To place in God we trust on such a corrupt medium of exchange is an abomination.

Fair warning

Micah 6 tells us that God has a controversy with his people and their leaders and he will be the decider in the contest. He's taught people that he expects his them to worship him in truth by living justly, mercifully and humbly in relation with him and others. In spite of his teaching, they have heaped up financial treasures through unjust economic practices and violence justified by lying deceit. In response to this wickedness, God is bringing sickness, hunger, violence and poverty upon the people. This appears to be where the United States is headed today because of the same sins against a holy God.

<sup>1</sup>Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. <sup>2</sup>Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD'S controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. <sup>3</sup>O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. <sup>4</sup>For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. <sup>5</sup>O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? <sup>7</sup>Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? <sup>8</sup>He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

<sup>9</sup>The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. <sup>10</sup>Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable? <sup>11</sup>Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights? <sup>12</sup>For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins. <sup>14</sup>Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword. <sup>15</sup>Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. <sup>16</sup>For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people. (Micah 6)

Possible signs of Antichrist arriving on the scene are appearing as we see a consolidation of national economies in process and hear talk of a global currency, cashless society, world central bank and President of the World.

http://www.augustreview.com/news\_commentary/trilateral\_commission/chorus\_call\_for\_new\_world\_order\_20090108109/

<http://www.globalresearch.ca/index.php?context=va&aid=10977>

<http://en.rian.ru/analysis/20081021/117861298.html>

<http://www.bloomberg.com.au/apps/news?pid=20601068&sid=apjqJKKQvfDc&refer=economy>

<http://www.un.org/apps/news/story.asp?NewsID=28300&Cr=general+assembly&Cr1=debate>

<http://edition.cnn.com/2008/POLITICS/11/05/international.press.reaction/index.html>

<http://www.petersoninstitute.org/publications/papers/truman0306-ga.pdf>

Nobleman: Baron David de Rothschild, the head of the Rothschild bank. The Rothschilds have helped the British government since financing Wellington's army to fight the French in 1815. Galen Clarke / The National

“Although his office denies that he was part of the official party, it is probably no coincidence that he happened to be in the same part of the world at the right time. That is how the Rothschilds have worked for centuries: quietly, without fuss, behind the scenes.”

“We have had 250 years or so of family involvement in the finance business,” says Baron Rothschild. “We provide advice on both sides of the balance sheet, and we do it globally.”

“There is no debate that Rothschild is a Jewish family, but we are proud to be in this region. However, it takes time to develop a global footprint,” he says. Baron Rothschild shares most people’s view that there is a new world order. In his opinion, banks will deleverage and there will be a new form of global governance.”

<http://www.thenational.ae/article/20081106/BUSINESS/167536298/1005>

As I speak to others concerning these issues facing the United States, a common response is “what are we going to do?”

In closing, I would like to answer that question and direct my response to the four types of people described by Jesus in his “Parable of the Sower” recorded in Luke 8:4-18; Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23; Mark 4:1-9, 13-25)

People on the way side

Jesus described these types of people as those that hear truth, however, the truth never enters their heart to change their lives because Satan, a liar and the father of lies, quickly debunks it before they can believe it.

Satan cunningly convinces some that the truth is really a lie. Some are told that it’s crazy to think about such things that really don’t matter. Others are told that it can’t be true because the truth would have come out before now. Still others are reminded that the person telling them the truth couldn’t be right because he or she has this or that issue. Even others are told the lie that its unpatriotic, disrespectful and unloving to think such things about their country. Anyway Satan puts it, he quickly convinces the hearer by the way side that they can relax and continue to avoid the solution of repentance and faith in Christ.

People on stony ground

People on stony ground say that they want to know the truth, however, they're lives are shallow. Material things and pleasure matter more to them than unseen things like truth. Their inward character is unprepared to face the fiery trials allegiance to unpopular truth will bring. Pre-tribulation rapture teaching is filling churches with people on stony ground who are not prepared to face Antichrist and his war on freedom and the church.

People on stony ground simply aren't prepared to pay the cost required to believe hard truth. They're not prepared to overcome the pains of living outside the comforts of the mainstream. It's more important to them to be loved and accepted by people than it is to be faithful to a just and holy God.

They seek comfort in blending with those they love and enjoy. They aren't ready to sacrifice what they've known for the unfamiliar just truth they can't see.

They fear the unknown, rejection, and pain. They love the comfortable and familiar.

Their faithless fears keep them temporarily cocooned inside the mainstream box where they safely blend with the system that offers them false security.

Remember Lots' wife who simply couldn't escape the demonic hold of the familiar even as God's judgment was staring her right in the face. (Genesis 19:1-26; Luke 17:24-37)

Sadly, she and others like her on stony ground will suffer the eternal fires of judgment. They will miss out on eternal pleasures because they're faithlessly blinded to hard truth by the comforts of the familiar and remain afraid to trust God through the birth pains associated with entering His blessed eternal kingdom.

People among thorns

People among thorns are respectable, responsible, possibly very religious folks who just don't see the importance of knowing and believing the whole truth. What matters to them most is financial security.

Time is money to these ambitious capitalists. These people don't have time to invest in things that don't offer a chance for a return on their investment in this life.

People among thorns are kept from the truth by antichristian values fencing them off from the costly investment of time required to pursue unquantifiable things like deep, costly pearls of truth.

People on good ground

Praise God for people on good ground-and there will be great multitudes of them! (Revelation 7:7-17).

The world system is built on wicked ground. These people live heroically “above the ground” overcoming the wicked. (Ephesians 2:6; Revelation 12:11)

They overcome wickedness with goodness. (Romans 12:21; 1 John 2:12-14, 4:4)

They enjoy the green pastures prepared for them by their good and great shepherd. (1 John 2:13; Psalm 23;

These saints have honestly counted the cost of following the Lord Jesus Christ. (Luke 14:25-35)

They aren't deluded to think that the gift of eternal life won't cost them everything in this life. (Matthew 22:37; Luke 14:33)

They are realists who accept that becoming like Christ means suffering like Christ. They realize that this isn't always a pleasant experience, however, they find comfort in the promises of scripture. (James 5:10; Revelation 2:10; Hebrews 11:25; 2 Timothy 2:12, 3:12; 2 Thessalonians 1:5; Philippians 1:29; 2 Corinthians 1:6; Romans 8:17; Acts 5:31)

They realize that they will suffer tribulation in this world if they decide to live the truth in following their Lord. (Acts 14:22; John 16:33; Romans 12:12; 2 Corinthians 1:4; 1 Thessalonians 3:4; Hebrews 11:7-16; Revelation 1:9, 2:10)

Great multitudes unashamed to be different and unafraid of being rejected and suffering physically and emotionally for truth as the Lord Jesus Christ did for them.

These are holy, non-integrating individuals living as aliens in the New World Order. They're unafraid of the tyrannical beast regime as they flee its murderous tentacles. They scatter from its forces, fleeing to where God leads. (Daniel 12:7; Matthew 10:23; Matthew 24:16-28; Revelation 7:13-17)

These people live not for themselves, but for those lost souls to be rescued from hell's grip and for their companions in suffering. (Revelation 12:10-17)

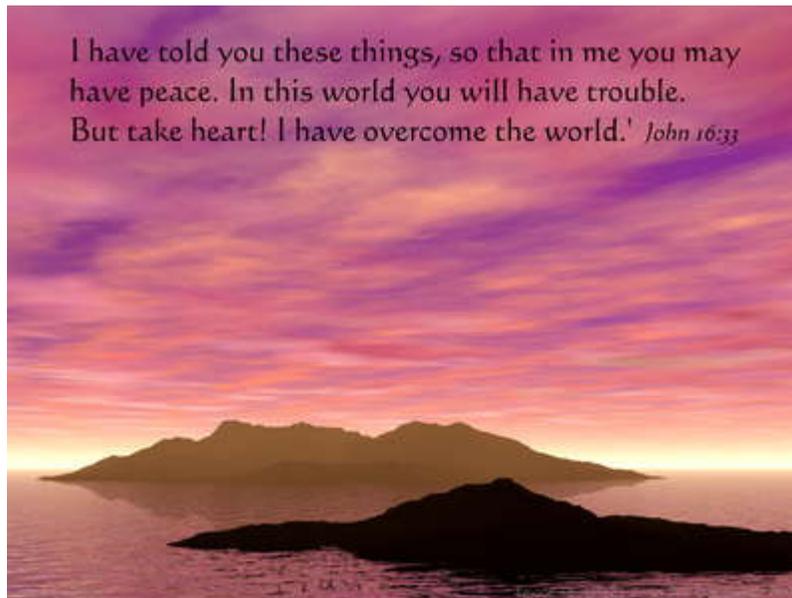

Unlike Lot's wife who didn't manage to escape Sodom, the people on good ground come out of Babylon prior to her judgment. (Genesis 19:1-29; Luke 17:24-37)

They live lives “above the ground” having fled to heavenly places of mind where they enjoy freedom from the hidden demonic mind fields planted throughout Babylon the Great by their spiritual enemy.

What can we do?

I regret to say that it appears that God may have already begun his progressive judgment upon the U.S. for her idolatry.

In preparing myself for potentially overwhelming tribulation, I have recently begun compiling a memorization list of prayers and promises I find in my daily reading of the Psalms which promise comfort, protection, provision, hope amidst tribulation and justice upon the wicked enemies of God and his people.

For those of us that understand that judgment and tribulation are at hand; let's encourage one another even more. Remember, brothers and sisters-God's people don't "go to church". God's people are his church.

If you've already counted the cost and are committed to following Christ to the end- rejoice in tribulation, pray about everything, be thankful you're sharing in Christ's sufferings, measure everything against God's word, hate and confront evil, love your enemies, pray for those that persecute you, sacrificially love the family of God and remember that we worship a just God who will destroy our wicked enemies one day. (1 Thessalonians 5:16-28) Trust God, not man. (Psalm 118:8; Isaiah 2:22)

If you haven't completely and unconditionally entrusted the control of your life to the sovereign will of the Lord Jesus Christ, today is the day to escape Babylon's death grip.

You're invited to read the messages about the Messiah found at http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/The\_Messiah.html for direction on how to begin your heavenly escape from hell.

