

Returning to the Narrow Way

Introduction

My daughter and I were at the dirt track that we regularly venture to for exercise and give Mom a breather. Periodically between laps we'll play various games of chase. One game we've enjoyed from time to time is an old playground game from my youth called "Gingerbread Man". One of us yells out; "Run, run, run as fast as you can...you can't catch me I'm the "Gingerbread Man!" and then the other person chases the one that just yelled the old rhyme.

This semi-oval dirt track located in the outskirts of our town surrounds a grassy field. Any area of tall grass in the region is a good hiding place for a potentially dangerous snake so my daughter is taught to stay out of tall grass.

Recently one bright summer morning about one half of the grassy field inside the track was mowed. The mowed area included a straight and narrow strip about four feet wide. This narrow way spanned the radius of the track. As I was chasing my daughter around the mowed half of the field she suddenly decided to detour onto the straight and narrow path in her gallant effort to escape my restrained pursuit. I quickly reminded her of the need to stay within the mowed path and how we'd have to stop playing if she decided to turn off the narrow path into the broader area filled with tall grass. It was at that moment of reminding her of the consequences for straying from the strait path that thoughts about the importance of God's children staying within their narrow road were quickly activated within me. My mind ran to thoughts based upon verses like the ones found below.

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." (Matthew 7:13-14)

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. (Luke 13:23-24)

Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil. (Proverbs 4:25-27)

Throughout much of our remaining time at the track I pondered the different temptations we all face to listen to the deceitful voice of our heart and justify broadening God's narrow way in order to accommodate the desires of our sinful nature. I considered ways in which the narrow way was currently being broadened, why this broadening was occurring and what can be done about returning the body of Christ to the strait way. The remainder of this article reflects upon the answers to these questions.

Self deceived

God knows how long the professing American Christian church has failed to teach the whole truth concerning the works of the flesh. The word of God is being handled deceitfully. (2 Corinthians 4:2) Some sinful works of the flesh are addressed more than others by church leaders. I believe that the main reason this truth famine exists is that leadership is generally more interested in damage control and eliminating threatening obstacles to church growth instead of developing mature disciples of Christ.

In short, most 501-c3 churches face debt. In addition, ambitious narcissists craving attention, wealth and power face us. It's a rare 501-c3 pulpit beast that will actually want to take social security income from elderly sheep to support their religious operation. Ambitious pulpit predators prefer the kind of people they feel will make them feel successful and will be willing to share with them.

Jesus Christ warned us to beware of wolves disguised as sheep. (Matthew 7:15) Savvy wolf websites may even rudely welcome us to their religious business with an on-line giving banner immediately reaching for our wallet. Yes, evangelism makes excellent cover for greed. Families are good fish for these greedy dogs to fry because families are usually attractive and come with a network of contacts to be mined. There's no biblical basis for the wolves' carnal methods. Many works of the flesh are justified in the name of church growth required to support 501-c3 religious works of the flesh that American professing Christians call "churches".

Inside each of us lives an enemy that many of us don't fully recognize or understand. This enemy is the works of our flesh. Though these works may be a greater daily threat to the believer's relationship with God than Satan's intermittent, localized attacks infrequently occurring whenever the devil finds a vulnerable Christian to devour, many professing Christians remain quite ignorant concerning the ever present enemy within them. As a result we remain extremely vulnerable to self deception.

Did you know that Galatians 5:19-21 lists sixteen major categories of works of the flesh or sins of human nature? Within these categories there are even subcategories of sinful works that could be listed. How many of the 16 works of the flesh can you name? Of those that you can name, how many of them can you define?

Do we understand that these works are among the non-negotiables of true religion? If we live in these works, we don't live in Christ. (Romans 6) If we continue in the works of the flesh without turning from them by faith in Christ, we remain separated from God eternally facing a future in the lake of fire. (Galatians 5:13-26)

If we stumble and get entangled in works of the flesh as a believer; even falling to the point of enjoying the temporary pleasure of something we know to be sin, it's never too soon to put that sin to death through confession and faith. Don't listen to that lying voice accusing you that you've gone too far and can't be forgiven. For it is written in Matthew 12:31 and 1John 1:9-2:2;

Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit isn't willful sin. When Matthew 12:31 is properly interpreted within its context, it can be seen that what Jesus calls blasphemy against the Holy Ghost is permanently rejecting his true identity as proven by his miraculous works.

The sixteen major categories of the works of the flesh and their biblical definitions are as follows:

- Adultery: fantasizing about or actually having any form of extra-marital sex. Divorcing a faithful spouse in order to marry someone else or marrying someone who has wrongfully divorced their spouse in order to marry you.
- Uncleanness: unrestrained, excessive, immoral thoughts, words and actions.
- Lasciviousness: any form of male gay or female lesbian homosexuality; any form of pre-marital sex or fornication; incest; bestiality; loosely running around indulging animalistic sexual desires.
- Idolatry: attachment and devotion to any group, person, place, symbol or thing in the world above the Lord Jesus Christ with such excessive allegiance or covetous desire for it causing disobedience to the principles or commands of His Word.
- Witchcraft: sorcery; the art and science of using demonic forces to cause change to occur according to your will through white magic witchcraft to manipulate people and or circumstances for personal gain and in black magic witchcraft for destructive purposes.
- Hatred: deep rooted, unforgiving opposition to someone; the opposite of friendship toward a person.
- Variance: quarrels based upon differences of opinion, interpretation, or altered legal conditions.
- Emulations: malicious, unrighteous heated jealousy or indignation.
- Wrath: fierce, violent, extreme, uncontrollable, selfish, vengeful, unrighteous anger.
- Strife: any form of competitive rivalry or contention for superiority for the purpose of promoting yourself above someone or placing them below you.
- Seditious: opposition to moral, lawful civil authority.
- Heresies: cultic or sectarian beliefs unique to an individual or a group which are contrary to the sound teaching of the Holy Scriptures.
- Envy: feeling ill will or spiteful jealousy at the superior condition and happiness of another.
- Murders: premeditated killing from extreme hatred or ill will.

- Drunkennes: overwhelmed or overpowered by intoxicating alcoholic drink to the point where one becomes physically and mentally impaired.
- Revellings: letting loose, carousing, partying or feasting with noisy music and hilarious laughter arising from self-indulgent entertainment.

The root cause of breaking God's commandments can be traced back to one of these sixteen characteristics. A sprinkling of them is found in every human being. Throughout all ages and generations the father's sinful nature on both the male and female side has been transmitted to each newborn. It's worth noting here that as a result of this curse, we know that it's possible for someone to be born with an inborn tendency to lasciviousness which can include homosexual or lesbianism tendencies. This truth doesn't justify these sinful works. Living in these sinful works is always a choice. This is true whether these sinful tendencies are inborn or they've developed later in life for emotional or psychological reasons, rebellious bitterness against the opposite sex, or for one reason or another at some point in their life they enjoyed an experience.

Unlike global warming and climate change, sin is a truly global problem knowing no boundaries. (1 John 1:9; Romans 3:23; Romans 5:12) Because God is love, God has already sacrificed his one and only perfect Son the Lord Jesus Christ to cover the global sin debt for all time. The problem continues to exist, however, because people love the moral darkness of sin more than the light of truth. (John 3:16-21; Romans 3:23-25; 1 John 2:1-2; 1 John 4:10)

If the global sin problem has a solution then why does it still haunt humanity? Why are we plagued by this "speciesism"? Why does sin still haunt the country like the U.S. where you'd have to literally be physically deaf and blind to avoid hearing the gospel? Jesus told us it was because people love their sin more than God's truth. (John 3:16-21) Many people won't admit that until they encounter great personal loss or face death. This is to be expected since human beings are born liars. (Psalm 58:3) If sins slaves were honest they'd admit they love themselves and the comfortably familiar security of their world. They wouldn't deny that it's too costly for them to exchange their fit with the broad way of their world for a radically new life on a narrow road alien to them.

Hypocrites believe the truth intellectually and profess faith publicly; however, they broaden the narrow way to accommodate their favorite sins of the flesh. The 501-c3 pulpit predators have created good religious cover for hypocrites to feel comfortable in. It's also a great situation for unbelievers to use as a scapegoat for their unwillingness to assume responsibility for their sin. A massive demonic stronghold of self-delusion was created when this religious cover was combined with decade's worth of teaching aimed at building self-esteem instead of God and others-esteem in children. As a result, nearly two generations of Americans are now covered with a mountain of prideful self-love rendering them incapable of responding in selfless, unconditional love to God and others. Many professing Christians now live with a mentality that nothing or nobody is going to come between me and my desires. Although God has promised to comfort his children amidst much tribulation, persecution and suffering, many professing American Christians act as if whatever it takes or whomever I hurt I'm entitled to enjoy that materialistic "Life Is Good" American Dream (John 15:18-21; Acts 14:22; Romans 5:3; Romans 12:2; 2 Corinthians 1:4; 1 Thessalonians 3:4; 2 Timothy 3:12; Revelation 1:9; Revelation 2:9-10)

Remember the word that I said unto you, the servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also (John 15:20)

We must take very seriously the fact that Jesus warned that MANY will end up in hell because nice pastors with impressive religious resumes deceived them to believe they could enjoy both their best life now and heaven later by detouring around the difficulties of the narrow way on the broad and easy road. (Matthew 7:13-23; Luke 13:22-30)

Heresies of the flesh

No nationality or race of people is exempt from sin's curse. There is no overall superior flesh. Racial strife is a work of the flesh. God is no respecter of persons. (Acts 10:34) Our inherent sinful nature or flesh separates each of us from a holy God unless that sin is confessed and atoned for. (1 John 1:5-10) Each of us is a mixture of the characteristics of our inherent sinful nature, intelligence and temperament. Each of the works of the flesh is destructive to life and liberty. Some destructive works of the flesh are accepted as legal in society because they serve the overall plan and or financial purposes of the demonically enlightened evil elite running the world system. (Ephesians 6:12) Elite programming and social engineering has led us to falsely believe that the covetous idolater or greedy glutton is better than the drunkard, smoker, or sloth; that one socio-economic class is superior to another, that the formally educated are better than the informally educated, that Jews are better than Gentiles, that CEO's are better than those they employ and that the financial elite are superior to their slaves. Let's not be deceived. No one is good except God alone. (Matthew 19:17) In our flesh dwells no good thing. (Romans 7:18) The first shall be last and the last first in God's kingdom. (Luke 13:23-30)

Matthew 7:13-14 reads as follows:

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

The Geneva Bible comments on these verses that "the example of life must not be taken from the multitude."

"The example of life must not be taken from the multitude"
(Geneva Bible Comments)

In spite of this truth, the professing Christian church in America has done just the opposite. Over the last century I believe that Satan has progressively conditioned the church to believe that bigger is better and God brings worldly success. Mass Evangelistic Crusades and Revivals, Televangelism, The Moral Majority and Mega-Churches have subtly conditioned us to believe if God was blessing our work it would successfully reach many while thriving financially. As a result of accepting this false paradigm of success with God, the professing American Christian church isn't deeply rooted in unselfish obedience to biblical truth. Instead, the church has thrived numerically as a spiritually lukewarm religious club through appealing to the culturally acceptable desires of our flesh and providing false temporary psychological cover for sin's guilt. This has filled the professing church with many tares¹ that profess but don't possess Christ.

Heresies arise from within man's sinful nature. (Galatians 5:20) The operative heresy at work in selling the lie that if God is blessing our work it will successfully reach many and thrive financially is the false doctrine of "Gain Is Godliness". False teachers have added another lane to God's narrow road in order to accommodate professing Christians tending to idolize material success and faithless tares needing constant signs of affirmation that God is alive and working on their behalf. To overcome this heresy we must simply believe the following truths:

More isn't better. Greed isn't good. The rich aren't superior to the poor or vice-versa. They simply have greater responsibility before God to share with those in physical need. (Matthew 19:16-26; James 2:1-9; Isaiah 56; Proverbs 1:19; 1 Timothy 3:3, 8; 1 Timothy 6:17-19)

Members of the controlling super class aren't better than their slaves. They too have greater responsibility before God for the harm they've sown and the good they failed to perform. (James 5:1-6)

¹ Tares are false professing Christians that Satan has planted amongst true professing Christians. (Matthew 13:24-30; 36-43)

The New York Times; Culver Pictures (top); Jack Guetz/Agence France-Press — Getty Images (above)

Financial gain isn't related to godliness. The godly can be content having food, clothing and shelter for the day. Great gain is godliness with such contentment. (1 Timothy 6:3-10)

Ephesians 6:10-12 tells us that the world system is ruled by demonic forces operating through wicked elite.

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places”

Truth is under attack by these demonic powers. When the mind isn't renewed with truth it's vulnerable to devil speak. Ephesians 6:14 tells us to have our minds “girt about with truth”. “Girt about with truth” is a figure of speech based upon military terms. The loins refer to the seat of man's power. The girdle refers to a soldier's belt pulled tightly around the waste to strengthen the warrior's mid-section. Our minds are spiritual weak and vulnerable to enemy attack unless wrapped with the truth of God's holy word.

One front in the war on truth is fought against our minds in the following simple terms. Elite controlled mass communication media is designed to lead us to desire the social pattern established for us by elite controlled educational institutions and corporations. Media programming uses demonically inspired messages and imaging designed to appeal to the desires of our sinful nature in hopes of leading us off the narrow way to our best life now. Elite controlled organizations feed our flesh entertainment specifically chosen to socially engineer us into the mold envisioned for us by the elite and distract us from spiritual realities.

High priced distraction: Michelle & Barry

“The birth of TV was a magical event foreshadowing its satanic significance. The first commercial broadcast was aired on Walpurgisnacht, April 30th, 1939, at the New York World's Fair. Since then, TV's infiltration has been so gradual, so complete that no one even noticed. People don't need to go to church anymore; they get their morality plays on television.”...“We can use TV as a potent propaganda machine. The stage is set for the infusion of true satanic philosophy and potent (emotionally inspiring) music to accompany the inverted crosses and pentagrams.” (Anton LaVey, The Devils' Notebook, 1992)

The church has now been fully indoctrinated and conditioned to lovingly embrace this world of the elite. The church now affirms the use of world system and its idols as tools to reach non-members. The church now supports murderous and illegal state doctrines essential to the establishment of Antichrists “United States of the World”.

Greedy dogs and their sleepwalking saints tell us a world system friendly church is a growing church. They ignore the truth that becoming a friend of the world system and its idols means becoming an enemy of God. (James 4:4) Professing American Christians are generally led to believe that as long as they publicly profess Jesus as Savior and Lord, get baptized, submit to church and state authority, pay taxes, attend church religiously, read the Bible, pray, tithe, oppose abortion, believe in Creation, spread the gospel and avoid addictions to smoking, drinking, gambling and pornography that God would be pleased with them. Is this what the scriptures teach though?

The reality of our own salvation should be tested against the following truths taught by the Apostle John as written in 1 John and not against an experience like speaking in an unknown tongue or accepting Jesus into our heart at an altar after walking a public aisle.

- Do we believe Jesus Christ is the one true God? (1 John 4:2)
- Do we have an inward sense that God is our Father and confess that Jesus came as God our Savior? (1 John 3:24; 1 John 4:2; 1 John 4:13; Romans 8:14-16)
- Do we keep God’s commandments? (1 John 2:3; 1 John 5:1-3)
- Do we hate the world system and separate ourselves from its evil and idolatry? (1 John 2:15-17; 1 John 5:3-5)
- Do we love true believers by sacrificially meeting their needs and obeying the God’s commands? (1 John 3:11-1; 1

In its culturally re-engineered mindset, the church has exchanged God’s values for the values elite programmers’ desire for her.

Because of this apostasy, it hasn’t mattered much to the professing church how professing Christians earn their income as long as their Federal Reserve Notes were earned legally. It became of little or no consequence how many people might be indirectly or directly hurt or wrongly offended in the course of one's work as long as they worked diligently, honestly and obeyed their employers' rules.

It didn't matter if a career separated a father or mother from their family if it paid well enough. It didn't matter if Mom forsook her role as "keeper at home" or homemaker as long as the family lived in a nice home, drove nice cars, looked and acted nice and faithfully supported the church.

Instead of being a useless eater; an unproductive branch of the US Federal Reserve System, a working Mom becomes a productive person for their system.

Putting Mom to work outside the home allows elite controllers to reap tax benefits and socially engineering children through the weapons of mass education and worldly peer influence (socialization).

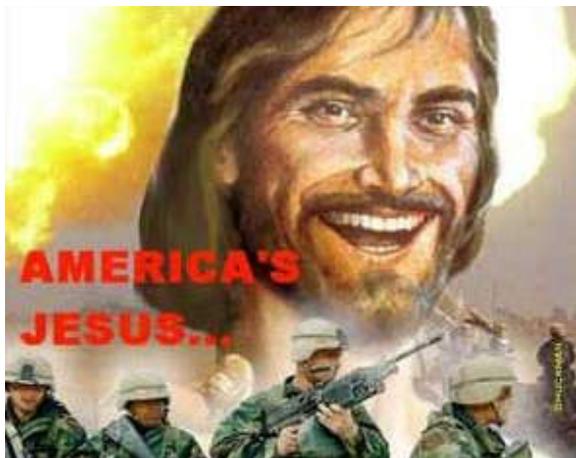

It didn't seem to matter much if the church functioned according to the principles and commands of scripture or if church leadership taught the whole counsel of God accurately. It was of no consequence that our government and financial system functioned illegally and un-Constitutionally. It didn't matter that wars were justified under false pretexts and used to murder those standing in the way of covetous American interests and our elite ordained role in policing the process of economic globalization on behalf of the kings of the earth.

Church leadership was now unequally yoked with the antichristian state as a 501-c3 religious organization as the powers had planned. Biblical truth was now compromised. The Holy Spirit was quenched. A famine of hearing the word of God had developed. The narrow path had been broadened. In order to justify this whorish relationship, the deceitful hearts of 501-c3 church leaders told them that this is Christian America and their members better stop exposing evil and questioning policy because the USA knows and does what's best for the world.

The power of American patriotic pride would rise up and rid the congregation of anyone considered brash enough to throw biblical truth in the face of elite inspired error. What mattered now to the elite conditioned 501-c3 church leadership and their fans was that the sheep were in attendance, in submission and in support of church and state operations. What mattered was that the sheep played in tune with music written by the unbiblical 501-c3 IRS tax code regulations. It didn't matter if the music was written wrong. It didn't matter that their tune was out of tune. The sheep were still expected to play their role in the band well. If they couldn't bring themselves to cooperate with the band conductor they risked being told by him to find a new band in another country.

Black Magick believers in the late idol Aleister Crowley, whom they refer to as "the beast 666", believe in the concept of freedom. Though slaves to witchcraft and demonic powers they believe the essence of their freedom lies in freedom from restriction. In other words they're slaves to sin; however, they believe they're free because they deny sin exists. Professing American Christians take a parallel path denying the reality of encroachments to true freedom they can encounter in efforts to conform their entire lives to the whole counsel of God.

True believers have spiritual freedom in Christ. They'll also face restrictions unique to believers because of their faith. 501-c3 church leaders are prone to remind the sheep of the freedom they enjoy as Americans.

This inevitably leads to praising our troops and the wars they fight to keep us “free”.

U.S. Army Spc. Gregory Summers assigned to 2nd Battalion, 11th Field Artillery, 2nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team, 25th Infantry Division-Baghdad, uses a Biometric scanner to input a newly graduated electrical engineer into the pay system before the engineer can receive his first paycheck at an electrical sub-station in the Abu Ghraib area of Baghdad, Iraq, Jan. 22, 2009. U.S. Army phot by Sgt. Jacob H. Smith/Released.

<http://www.biometrics.dod.mil/photo2.aspx#nogo>

What do these deceived and deceiving leaders mean by free though? Does freedom from economic restriction mean we're a nation of true liberty?

“And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name”. (Revelation 13:17)

If professing Christians don't evaluate our moral values by looking at our face in the mirror of God's Word and evaluating the true nature of our work and its methods; the moral quality of our financial investments; the moral fruit of the people, corporations, politicians, political parties and institutions they promote, and the conformity of the teachings and methods of our ministries with biblical truth, it's easy to deceive ourselves to believe we're a good, free and faithful servant when in reality we're either indirectly or directly enslaved to iniquity.

Yes, thank God true believers are absolutely spiritually free in Christ! It's foolish to believe that true believers in Christ enjoy total socio-political freedom in the U.S.A. though. Americans currently enjoy freedom of choice when it comes to using our earnings and off work hours. Is this alleged freedom truly freedom though if what we spend our money and time on is the result of elite programming or if we have to deny some aspect of truth to remain employed or involved with a group of professing Christians?

We live in a time when the narrow way is under construction. Our religious, sexual, economic, political and other heritages are being radically altered at an accelerated pace. Key 501-c3 church leaders have worked for decades modifying God's way according to visions aiming to increase their financial profit through increasing traffic flow to their church. They've committed spiritual adultery by marrying profane music with sacred lyrics; secular psychology with biblical counsel; financial capitalism with biblical principles of free enterprise; antichristian state policy and 501-c3 IRS tax code regulations with body life and a U.S. Constitutional Republic with antichristian Israel and the New World Order.

Spiritual revival is the answer

What is the answer to this spiritual dilemma? Should we keep playing the 501-c3 death dirge because it feels good even though it's dreadfully out of tune with the Holy Spirit on numerous critical issues?

The answer lies in submission to truth. Not submission to church and state but in submission to the pure, unadulterated, raw truth.

Let's step up to the plate and begin by reviving our spiritual lives by examining ourselves active works of the flesh and confessing them as sin. If we're a believer and not a tare, we don't need to attend revival services or a deliverance ministry to experience revival if the Spirit of God lives within us. What's needed is a completely honest self examination against the sixteen works of the flesh found in Galatians 5:19-21. Our sin, no matter how heinous or minute is ultimately against God only. (Psalm 51:4) Our forgiveness with God is based upon our humble, contrite confession of sin to him. (Psalm 51; 1 John 1:9) The Apostle Paul wasn't required to make things right with the Christians he'd hurt or the families of those he'd killed before being forgiven. (Acts 9: 1-19) The criminal crucified with Christ didn't make restitution with his victims before being forgiven. (Luke 23:39-43) If after examining ourselves and sincerely confessing our sin to the God whom we've sinned against, we need to then begin a steady diet of reading the word of God, praying and obeying the truth revealed to us as we study God's Word and pray. (1 Peter 2:1-5; 2 Timothy 2:15; Ephesians 6:10-18; Jude 1:20; James 1:19-27)

As economic depression, war and other system perturbations occur the elite planners will be attempting to seduce through their mouthpieces to embrace the abominable solutions they have planned. This battle against the deceit of the powers at play is ultimately a spiritual battle. Its endgame is the "United States of the World" and the mark of the beast economy. This global economic system will require everyone to identify themselves as a supporter of the global beast kingdom in order to buy and sell. Those refusing to submit to the will of the beast will be killed. (Revelation 13:15-18)

Forcefully marking individuals

How close are we to the implementation of this fierce Christian-free global economic system?

According to the website link, <http://www.biometrics.dod.mil/About/mission.aspx>, The Biometrics Identity Management Agency leads Department of Defense activities to program, integrate, and synchronize biometric technologies and capabilities and to operate and maintain DoD's authoritative biometric database to support the National Security Strategy. Since it's used within the U.S. military, the system maintains a global presence.

The use of a biometric ID system in Iraq proves that a global system exists which is capable of marking individuals for the purpose of controlling access to employment, financial transactions, health care and education in the name of peace and security. Those refusing to be tagged are killed as terrorists for refusing to integrate.

The link

<http://www.biometrics.dod.mil/References/biometricusecases.aspx>

presents the following case studies which illustrate how the marking system is being used in the war on freedom.

Controlling Access

An Army civilian is scheduled to visit a U.S. military installation. Notification for approval for the visit has been sent to the installation's access control office roster. At the installation's main gate, the base access control system scans the visitor's official biometric-enabled identification token, collects a biometric sample, and verifies the visitor's credentials and authorization based on a positive match with the appropriate access roster. The access control office grants installation access privileges based on the visitor's identification data, DoD affiliation, and the current threat level. Upon completion of in-processing, the visitor is granted access to specific parking lots and buildings on the installation. The identity validation process is repeated in a layered security procedure using the individual's specific biometric-enabled identification token processed by network security access control devices. The visitor's identity and access authorization is confirmed at each access location. This system can be used for physical and network access control throughout the installation.

Biometrics can help ensure that only authorized personnel have access to installations, buildings, and networks.

Access to services for non-U.S. personnel

When operating in a foreign country, the U.S. often contracts with local nationals to provide labor and services. As a condition of employment, the laborer must provide individual identity information and biometric samples for screening and background check purposes. Biometric samples are taken and matched against both host nation and U.S. authoritative sources. Both positive and negative matches result in the update and enrollment of individual biometric files, respectively. Additionally, once stored, these biometric files are shared with the host nation and U.S. non-DoD parties for subsequent analysis and fusion of applicable biometric and associated information (e.g., criminal records). Based on this exhaustive research, the U.S. military decides whether to offer employment and issue a biometric-enabled identity card to the job applicant. Biometric matching of all laborers is conducted on payday to confirm identity prior to payment.

Biometrics can help prevent unauthorized personnel from gaining access to services resulting in fraudulent payments.

Common Access Cards

We've seen that a marking system exists that's capable of handling the immense task of marking the global population for processing. God warned humanity about a system that would be designed and implemented for this purpose.

The final form of the mark of the beast system has been and still is a frequent subject of discussion and debate among professing Christians. Whether or not the mark will entail a microchip implant or an RFID tattoo is a mute point. It remains an increasingly interesting topic. Many have capitalized on its marketability over the years and that trend continues to grow. There is a risk, however, of getting lost in this forest as we focus on the trees. We need to always keep in mind that the deception surrounding the mark of the beast will be so great that it will deceive the lost tares in the professing church and it will almost deceive the wheat. (Matthew 24:24)

To avoid being deceived what really matters is that we understand the main purpose behind this mark. All professing believers must understand and agree that the purpose of the mark of the beast will be to identify people as members of the Global Economic Community (GEC) led by Antichrist. The eternal fate of every person on earth at the time of the mark is implemented will be determined by their decision concerning the mark. The saints belonging to the kingdom of God who obey the commands of their Lord Jesus Christ would rather be killed than submit to Antichrist's Order. (Revelation 13: 15-18; Revelation 20:4) Lost tares and other non-believers taken captive by the deceitful political rhetoric and fraudulent government activities will believe the lie and embrace the evil mark of the beast system as good. Around the globe, deluded masses will approve of evildoing and injustice. They will follow the global beast nation and worship its image. (2 Thessalonians 2:8-12)

The U.S. military already uses a globally interoperable ID card that is technically capable of functioning as the mark of the beast. It's known as the Common Access Card (CAC).

<http://www.cac.mil/>

<http://www.commonaccesscard.us/>

Take a peek at this card and its contents at the following links.

<http://www.cac.mil/CardInfoGeneva1.html>

<http://www.cac.mil/CardInfoIdentification.html>

<http://www.cac.mil/CardInfo.html>

George W. Bush's 2004 Homeland Security Presidential Directive 12/HSPD-12 mandated a common identification standard for federal employees and contractors. The CAC meets the requirements of this directive. It's engineered for global interoperability and is currently used world-wide.

http://www.cac.mil/assets/pdfs/HSPD_12.pdf

The following summary of the U.S. DoD Common Access Card was taken from the following link:

<http://www.globalplatform.org/implementationsgovernment.asp>.

"In 1999² the US Department of Defense (DoD) had began work on a program to issue a common-access identification smart card to 4.5 million active duty, selected reserve, DoD civilian and eligible contractor personnel. The Common Access Card (CAC), is a smart card standard established by the Government Services Administration (GSA), a key purchasing arm of the US government, in conjunction with various military departments. The card is used to enable physical access to buildings and controlled spaces and gain access to the DoD's computer network and systems.

² 1999 was prior to the issuance of George W. Bush's 2004 Homeland Security Presidential Directive 12/HSPD-12!!!

The solution is based on GlobalPlatform technology to simplify the process of multiple government agencies deploying an interoperable smart card. The ultimate goal is to be able to use a CAC anywhere that the cards are accepted, regardless of which government agency issued it.

As of February 2008, approximately 15 million CAC cards had been issued at over 2,000 issuance stations worldwide."

"The Department's approach uses COTS technology following the best industry practices. The card platform and architecture mirror the approach of the card industry with early adopters including Fleet Bank's "Fusion", Visa's credit card, First USA Bank's "Smart Visa", as well as American Express' "Blue" card program. Sun Microsystems "Sun Badge" corporate ID card, issued to all Sun employees worldwide, is also based on the same platform approach. This approach is standards-based utilizing IETF (Internet Engineering Task Force), ISO International Organization for Standardization), ANSI (American National Standards Institute) and GlobalPlatform Specifications, which has allowed for multiple vendors to competitively supply smart cards, readers/encoders, software and other equipment for this program. Furthermore, the DoD is leveraging the economies of scale of these large organizations. As an example, Visa has one billion cardholder accounts worldwide enabling low-cost, common solutions to continue to improve the economies of this program. In addition, the CAC platform supports multiple applications. This allows for additional services to be dynamically loaded after the cards are issued to provide additional capabilities and services. The U.S. Navy and U.S. Marine Corps will use the cards as an ID card and to gain access to the newly emerging Navy-Marine Corps Intranet (NMCI). As requirements change via legislation or policy, the ability to evolve the CAC without reissuance has vast economic benefits.”

The DoD worked closely with ActivCard, Visa and Sun Microsystems to conform to the applications, security and robust design requirements of the GlobalPlatform Card Specification v2.0.(Implementations/Government, 2010)

A recent DoD report even demonizes futurist bible believing Christians as security threats?

<http://www.renewamerica.com/columns/baldwin/100415>

<http://www.dtic.mil/cgibin/GetTRDoc?AD=ADA485511&Location=U2&doc=GetTRDoc.pdf>

DoD is a leader in the development of a sophisticated identity management infrastructure. The Common Access Card is at the very center of that infrastructure and is critical to the continued efficient and secure operation of the DoD's many computer systems and the key to emerging physical access systems.” (Rob Brandewie, Deputy Director DMDC)

Conclusion

Sober up church! Great tribulation, not heavenly rapture, will mark the end of the 501-c3 church games! Antichrists' war is on the saints not on the Jews!³

What does the war mean in practical terms to the 501-c3 church?

³ The saints are the true believers; the body of Christ, the people of God! What a ludicrous lie that the saints refers to the Jewish believers only! How has the professing church swallowed such foolishness with all of our knowledge? Much of the New Testament would be void to Gentile believers if the word saint(s) was replaced by Jew(s). (Romans 1:7; Colossians 1:26-27; Jude 1:3-4; 1 Timothy 5:10; 1 Thessalonians 3:13; Ephesians 5:3; Ephesians 6:18; Revelation 6:9-11/Revelation 7:9-17, etc.)

No more extra-biblical commands, false religious guilt and psychological pulpit power plays!

Building programs and Wednesday and Sunday services at fashionable facilities eliminated!

Youth group activities? Prayer breakfasts, dinner theatres, movie nights and coffee houses? Revivals?
Missions Conferences? Praise and Worship Concerts? Forget them all!

Pastoral authority and the coveted “double honor” of the pastoral ministry lost. Pastors’ elite parking space will disappear.

Professional ministry and 501-c3 benefits will be history! Tax deductible tithing will be impossible!

Baptism by immersion will have become a dream. The “Lone Ranger Christianity” so condemned by 501-c3 church team leaders in lukewarm times will have become God’s norm.
True believers will have become brothers and companions with that great Patmos lone ranger Apostle John. (Revelation 1:9) Mourning and tears rather than casual joking will characterize the emotional state of the scattered and torn body of the Lord Jesus Christ.

A new international economic system complete with mandatory ID required to buy and sell appears to be in the final stages of its birth cycle. Global economic collapse, false flag terror attacks, catastrophes, wars, war rumors and executive orders could rapidly accelerate the completion of the womb to tomb birthing process of this giant global systems project if the righteous neglect their responsibility to watch and pray.

Meanwhile tares will be like Hitler’s willing executioners. These “nice”, “normal” people were Hitler’s world servers who patriotically supported the Nazi system in the name of efficiency and prosperity. Some of today’s tares are among the desk devils placed at various levels within the hierarchy working and investing in smart planet corporations like IBM and its global subsidiaries.
These are the corporations making the global economy work better for the sake of the global elite. Moldable pawns under the deceitful mind control of higher powers helping manifest the coming nightmare on behalf of the beast soon to be revealed. Having rationalized their consciencences away, such tares and tools feverishly feed off the forbidden fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil helping hell to throw its destructive net over earth’s final generation before Christ returns.

Another sign that the mark of the beast is approaching is seen in the May 2010 National Security Strategy
(NSS) issued by President Obama.
This document states the general strategic approach of the United States in dealing with what we're told is the nation's greatest security concerns. The latest NSS can be accessed at the link below.

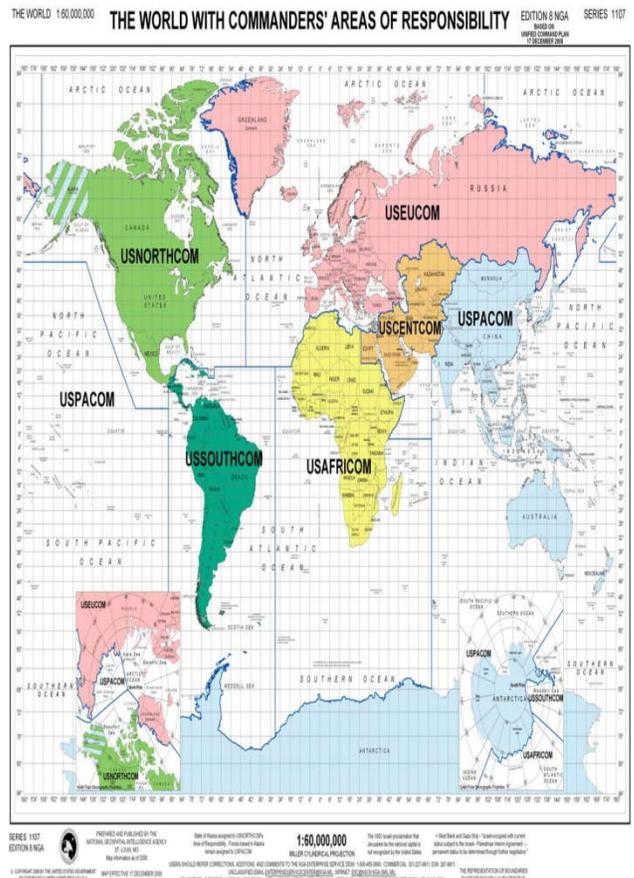

http://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/rss_viewer/national_security_strategy.pdf

Policy papers like the NSS are a product of the National Security Council (NSC). The 2010 NSS emphasizes the global leadership role of the United States in advancing the values and interests of the United States and in shaping a sustainable global international order. The paper leaves no doubt that the New World Order, the U.S. Dollar's Novus Ordo Seclorum, exists and that the United States of America is amplifying its intent to lead the international order.

The trend toward transparency regarding the existence of an international order is easy to spot in the side by side comparison of the

49 page 2006 NSS with the 52 page 2010 NSS.

The following table contrasts the content of the 2006 and 2010 NSS's.

References to the word, phrase or concept in the NSS	Number of times used in 2006 NSS	Number of times used in 2010 NSS
international order	0	29
U.S. role in leading/shaping the international order	8	65
Sustainable international order	0	4
security	130	250
peace	25	41
prosperity	26	53
International	69	193
Terror/terrorism	16	49
Threat(s)	29	72
Domestic (security)	0	7
Homeland Security	2	10
Our borders	0	13
United Nations (U.N.)	13	20
Military	19	41
Global financial/economic system	3	8
Constitution (U.S.)	0	6
Iraq/Iraqis	55	32
Afghanistan	17	21
Russia/Russian	12	14
Iran/Iranian	16	11

With policy trends like this and the advanced state and perceived need for an interoperable global ID system, won't you agree that it's time to say no to PROGRESS of this nature? Isn't it time to take no steps forward and many steps back from the mark of the beast system.

If you're compartmentalized work is supporting the development and use of technology and information systems related to electronically identifying and tracking human beings like cattle, won't you agree it's time to give it up and jump ship! Won't you agree that NOW's the time to help stop so called PROGRESS in this area and revive the church one saint at a time by putting to death those sixteen works of the flesh. Hopes of restraining the beast are fruitless unless the information war is backed by the dunamis of God's Holy Spirit.

If you've never taken the step of receiving Jesus Christ as God and Savior you're invited to do by going to the following links for more help and information.

http://www.escapebabylonsdemons.com/The_Messiah.html